OTHER ACHIEVEMENTS

- MC & performed at weddings, bridal showers, birthday parties, and other events.
- Competed in the XM Satellite Radio “Top Comic” competition 2013 & 2014.
- Featured on “The Best of Montreal” comedy album.
- Co-Creator/Organizer/Producer of the Underground Comedy Railroad, a comedy show that features all-Black Canadian Comedians. The tour started in 2012 with just 3 cities and by 2014 the tour went on a 9 city cross Canada tour, often appearing on different talk shows in each city promoting the event. The tour entered its 7th year in 2018 and continues every year for Black History Month.

- In 2013, Andrew rented a theatre in Montreal and headlined his own one man show titled “C’est Moi! C’est Chocolat!” and sold out 4 out of 5 shows and was the highest grossing weekend the Theatre ever had.
- Following in the footsteps of his previous show “C’est Moi! C’est Chocolat!” in 2013, Andrew once again did another one-man show in the Fall of 2015, this time at the Montreal ComedyWorks called “C’est Moi! C’est Papa Chocolat!”, and again in Fall 2016 for his final show in Montreal “C’est Moi! C’est Finale Chocolat!” before leaving to Los Angeles. Once again, Andrew sold out both weekends.
- Andrew was one of a few select judges to judge the “Comedy Album of the Year” category (Sponsored by Sirius XM Canada) for the 2019 Canadian Juno Awards.
- Andrew has performed at the Haskell Free Library & Opera House in Stanstead, Quebec, in 2011 and 2012, a venue famous for being geographically on the Canadian/American border, with the border line running literally through the venue. Andrew, along with two other comedians, performed a comedy show at this venue with the comedians on stage on the Canadian side, and the audience sitting on the American side.

SEMINARS

- In Fall of 2018, Stand-up Comedian Andrew Searles and Stand-up Comedian & Improvisational Actor Jim Coughlin delivered a seminar about the history of Stand-up Comedy and Improv, and the mental and physical benefits to laughter to a group of psychiatrics for the Southern California Psychiatric Society. Discussing the influence of comedy in society and playing Improv games with the psychiatrics so they understand how beneficial comedy is so they can apply it to their lives and professional lives when they interact with their clients.
